on HAWAII LOA RIDGE

$7,500,000

It took two years of carving out rock, to create this amazing estate on Hawaii Loa Ridge. The removed rock was then used to build the walls and stairs on the property. The Ganzer Estate was designed and built by the current owners who spared no expense in taking advantage of the heavenly views and in creating incredible entertainment spaces. The home has many custom features, including custom lighting throughout and an amazing art collection that adorns the Estate inside and out. You'll fall in love with the pool and spa tub area which not only has water features and a landscaped island, but also a spectacular panoramic ocean, sunrise and sunset views.

The Ganzer Estate, with its ten million dollar views of Koko head and Diamond Head, is being offered for seven point five million dollars.
